Thomas Grenn Senr. James Grenn, Caswell County

An article by Sallie P. Anderson:

"Thomas Slade (first in Caswell) came to what was then Orange in 1765 and settled on the North Prong of Rattlesnake Creek. Son Nathaniel left record of this and affirmed 'my father settled themselves with their family' and 'spent the remainder of their lives in this county.' He might have added that 'their family' included his grandfather, Thomas Miles, sometimes called Esquire, and his sons and daughters. One of those sons, Abraham Miles, m. Elizabeth Tolbert, sister of Joseph Tolbert of Edgefield County, S.C. Abraham was in this county by at least 1763, the Tolberts even farther by land grant from Lord Granville. Thomas Miles I, father of Hannah Miles (m. Thomas Slade in 1748), therefore, brought quite a party when he came to our County, we believe, in 1765. Unfortunately, he died in 1766 leaving will in Orange.

"A most interesting letter which is vital to the understanding of the life and times of Thomas Slade I is quoted from the xerox of S.C. Archives: 'N.C. August 1783 Dear Brother and Sister: [Aquilla Miles, Hannah's brother, and wife Henrietta of Edgefield] I received your letter by [illegible -- may be John Lea but more probably J.T. as in Joseph Talbert] dated May 18 which gave me grate satisfaction to here from you all likewise. Our son William am glad to here of his welfare ["his" probably means Billy Miles, Aquilla's son who, along with William Thomas, Jr. and Nathaniel Slade, had just served in the Revolution]. Our fammaly all well at present only our son Nathan just come home from capt at Charles Towne. He is very poorly, hardly can walk aboute any. He was taking [taken] on the Rode so bade that he could not get any further he lyed about for three days and nights by himself on the rode nothing to eate nor drink, but as luck would have it sum good body came to him and took him home Till our son Thomas went for him about a hundred and sixty miles. You may tell Billey he was as poorly as he was when he was in camp in the South. I am sorry to acquainte you with this bade news all most with Tears in my eyes that we shant be able to send you any Brandy this year However if you would be so good as to give yourself the trouble to come and see us this Fall I will endeavor to git some good Whiskey to make your harts merry and to be shore to fitch Billey with you as the young ladies make grate inquire after him this little Parrish. The Paul's says that she longs to be doing for him [the Paul family lived nearby]. They are all afraid that he is married. You must indeavor to keep him in bounds and not let him ball aboute like a young Buck. My daughter Betsey Lea very poorly and is cripeld yit [this is the only known reference]. My children all well only them as I have mentioned. Tell Billey that Jesse Talbert and Fammaly agoing to Georgia to live very soon [Susannah Talbert is named in the wills and she and Jesse executed deed in 1784]. Fine crops here this year. I made oute last year Better far Better than I thought. Bought aboute four Barrels of Corn very dear, goods agitting cheap, salt at 8 and 10 shillings per bushel Iron at six pence. I have heard nothing from our friends from Maryland a long time. You must come and make merry with your old Mother-in-law [or stepmother]. She is a-going to try for her Negroes that she sayes Peter Miles stole from her. Thos. Simmons setts off tomorrow after them, but I am in hopes she [crossed out] he never will git them [actually lady alluded to was Hannah Whitaker McComas Miles, second wife of Thomas Miles I. They were married in Baltimore County in 1761 and Peter was her step-son]. So must conclude with giving our loves to you and yours and Billey [William Miles is named in will of father Aquilla Miles in 1801 but Henrietta was not his mother, having married Aquilla in 1771] Thomas Slade'

"Recently Susan DeGroote of Rockville, Md., a Slade descendant, had a professional to search the court records there and official record of Thomas Slade's age was uncovered, as well as an unexpected first wife. In 1742 Thomas, then 'about 25,' wife Ann Beeson 'about 18', and daughter Margaret about 'one year old' executed a lease in solemn form to the agent for Lord Baltimore's estate. In effect they agreed to till the Baltimore soil for an annual rental of 900 lbs. of tobacco. In 1744 they took on an adjoining tract for 300 lbs. This could have been a year of calamity for Thomas; wife Ann could have died with her second child and Margaret could have been adopted by relatives, but this is speculation. It is not speculation that Thomas and his brother Josiah lost the tract known as Slayde's Camp in a court suit. However, Thomas married again in 1748 and eventually sold the lease in 1765 for 215 lbs. gold.

"Both Thomas and Hannah left wills of record in Caswell. Archives has Thomas' original written shortly still saw to it that his Hannah had 200 acres including the house and orchard, three of the slaves, a sufficiency of stock, including 'choice sheep,' and the management of the estate. Tobacco had been a way of life for the Slades, both white and black, and he directed that his crop go to Jesse Carter, storekeeper, to pay his debt, with the balance, if any to be divided among the other creditors. Hannah's will probated at October Court, 1813, was also concerned with equal distribution. Josiah continued to live at the old home with Ezekiel's place adjoining. Ezekiel's sons were to become well-known for their bright-leaf tobacco.

15 Nov 1840 OBITUARY.

- Departed this life, 24 Nov 1840
Baltimore Sun

On Sunday, the 15th inst., Mrs. Matilda O., consort of Mr. William Lewis, of Long Green, and daughter of William Slade, Esq., of My Lady's Manor, Baltimore county. Thus, in the morning of existence, and in the very heyday of hope and happiness, the angel of death has summoned to the grave one of the most amiable and interesting of her sex. She had but recently given her heart and hand to him, who knew how to appreciate your worth, and who is now left to mourn over the wreck of his highest hopes and brightest anticipations. the sun which but yesterday arose on a life of expected happiness, has to-day gone down upon the ruin of all his expectations. The cheerful fireside is deserted; the bridal hall is silent, and the home of his heart is desolate, for she whom he... [sic. Pages from a history book, p. 479: "Along with his brothers Abisha and William he initiated improvements in the curing of bright leaf tobacco which had far-reaching results on the whole tobacco industry. The crucial discovery of the use of charcoal in the drying-out process was made by a young slave, Stephen, on the farm of Abisha Slade near Blanche, which was not even there at the time. Elias married Elizabeth Turner who had been born in Halifax County, Va., and soon established his own farming operations about a mile and a half up the Irish Road, now the Blanche Road. He worked very hard, saved his money and when he died he had acquired nearly 500 acres. Most of his children were born in the small frame salt-box house with the huge arched stone fireplace in the basement. His massive tobacco barns and remnants of the house still remain on what is now known as the Hansford Bradner place, not far from the banks of

COL. GRANDISON M. SHARP
(1810-1875)

Col. Grandison M. Sharp is one of the more colorful of our "Sharp Kin." Born in 1810 in Danville, Pittsylvania Co., VA, he married Martha G. SLADE (dau. Ezekiel SLADE and Mary HUBBARD) on 9 May 1831 in Caswell Co., NC. By the time he was 30, Grandison and Martha were dealing in considerable property, including sales in 1841 of properties on Linn Street and Main Street in Danville. On one of the Linn Street lots were a "Tobacco Factory and fixtures . . . erected by the said Sharp" on the property which he purchased in 1839.

There is a theory that Grandison's wealth began with his marriage into the considerable SLADE family of North Carolina. We do know that sometime before 1843, Martha's brother died, leaving her his 700-acre tobacco farm, which she sold. Indeed, on three of the Pittsylvania Co. deeds, Martha was taken aside, "privily and apart from her husband . . . [had] the said deed fully explained to her," and acknowledged "that she had freely and voluntarily signed, sealed and delivered the same." In whatever way he first came into the money, Grandison continually showed resourcefulness, recognition of opportunities and hard work in turning his property over into ever-increasing fortunes.

Grandison and Martha had six children whom we know about: Edward A. (b. 1833, VA); William H. (b. ca. 1834, Caswell Co., NC); Mary (b. ca. 1836, NC); Thomas (born ca. 1842, NC); Sidney (b. ca. 1844, TN); and ? (d. 1852, TN [see newspaper clipping below]).

Shortly after 1841, Grandison and Martha joined other residents of NC and VA—including the Taliaferro (later Toliver), Harrison and other Sharp families (among them his brother, William Turner Sharp)—and headed out to Gibson Co., TN. Apparently, life for the emigrant families was good; within 20 years, Grandison had amassed a fortune of $50,000 in real and personal property. Life on the beautiful Tennessee plains was still fraught with danger, however, as evidenced by this 12 Feb. 1852 article from the West Tennessee Whig:

"DISTRESSING ACCIDENT: On last Saturday a very serious and fatal accident occurred at the residence of G.M. Sharp, Esq., in the vicinity of this place. A gun was discharged accidentally, taking effect in the side of the little son of Mr. Sharp's, causing instant death. One little son was handling the gun at a little distance, the unfortunate child was leaning on his mother's knee, when the gun fired, discharging a full load of buck shot, which took effect as stated. It has never been our duty to chronicle a catastrophe so serious and so painful. And surely it should have a tendency to cause great care in the use of firearms. -

Trenton S.S. Banner."

Shortly after her tragic loss, Martha also passed away in Gibson County. Her father Ezekiel had died back in NC; thereafter, on 11 Oct. 1853, Grandison signed a relinquishment of any claim he might have had in the Slade property over to Martha's sisters, Elizabeth J. and Mary P.

By the 1860 Tennessee census, Grandison was shown as living on his farm in District 7, West of Trenton, which was valued at $27,500 in real property and $20,000 in personal property, with the "Widow McCutcheon" (whom he had married sometime preceding the census), in addition to his son Thomas and the Widow's four children by her previous marriage. According to Mr. T.O. Fitzpatrick, a resident of Cross Co., Arkansas, during the years Grandison was living there, Grandison also fathered Grandison Sharp, Jr. with his second wife. Fitzpatrick says that when the "Widow" left him, she took Grandison Jr. back to Tennessee where he was living in 1878 when he wrote to inquire about his father's estate.

In Aug. 1861, Grandison removed to a site about three miles northwest of Vandale, Poinsett (now Cross) Co., AR. He brought with him a saw mill and a flour mill and bought entire sections of property north of Wynne. He founded the town of Sharpsburg, for which he served as postmaster in 1872. The postal license was discontinued in 1873 and the town is no longer in existence. As usual, Grandison was financially resourceful—he cut down the substantial stand of trees on his property along Crowley's Ridge and shipped the timber overland or down the St. Francis River to the Mississippi and all parts of the South; he then planted cotton. Those farms look today, over 115 years later, much the same as they must have looked when Grandison and his family lived there. Mr. T.O. Fitzpatrick, newspaperman and historian of Cross Co. and Sharpsburg neighbor of Grandison, wrote in 1938 that the flour mill which Grandison brought with him from Tennessee "was of great value to that locality during the Civil War. It ground our wheat into flour, and people came to it from miles away."

Census records from 1870 show a G. Turner Sharp having been born in 1869 to Grandison and his third wife, 24-year-old Mary C. Whitlock, whom he married in Tipton Co. TN on 5 Feb. 1868 when he was 58. In the census, Grandison was listed as a miller, with real property estimated at $4,000 and personal property of $3,500. It could be that he had either been making substantial settlement with his second wife, the former Widow McCutcheon, or showing his new young wife, Mary Whitlock, the good life in Little Rock, as he was shown on county records as gradually selling pieces of land in the years prior to his death in 1874.

Grandison ran unsuccessfully for the Confederate legislature in 1864. His opponent, the victor for the seat, was Alexander M. Winn. Fitzpatrick (obviously a member of the opposition party) described the hotly-debated issue of the newly-formed Cross County:

"Although the war was going on and all able-bodied men were needed at the front, there was a full corps of candidates for all the offices from Congressman to Constable. * * * Professor Alexander M. Winn, who represented Poinsett County two years before when Cross was formed and who was then a resident of Cross, was a candidate for re-election. He was opposed by Grandison M. Sharp. Sharp accused him of not only having been luke-warm toward forming the new county, but of secret hostility, and at one of their speaking dates called upon Col. Cross, who was present, to prove his charge and in the colloquy which followed it was brought out that the county was named for Col. Cross.

"It may not be amiss for me to give a minute description of that particular debate as it will give a glimpse of life as it was lived at that time. The meeting took place at Old Pineville in a grove that then stood just west of the William Snowden blacksmith shop. A platform was erected and a table set upon it. It was Sharp's turn to open the debate. He mounted the platform and as he approached the table, unbuckled a belt with a brand new holster and six shooter and laid it on the table. He then let loose a veritable salvo of accusation against his opponent. When Winn rose to reply, he approached the table cautiously and eyed the artillery on it for nearly a minute. Then he turned to Sharp and said, 'Quite an armament. You ought to be out front. You might scare a Yankee, but you can't scare me.' He then defended his action by saying that he had been elected to represent Poinsett County and had done his duty and that no reasonable person would demand an apology or expect one. That the population of St. Francis was equally distributed over the county and she would not be materially affected by the loss of part of her territory. But the new county would take from Poinsett the bulk of her territory and wealth and leave her one of the least populous and poorest counties in the state. And this was true. Poinsett did not have 2,000 people until 1880. Sharp's pomposity and bombast proved his undoing. He was badly defeated.

"But the Legislature never met. The Confederacy collapsed shortly after."

Grandison was eventually elected to the legislature in 1874. He died in office in Aug. 1875. The Little Rock newspapers wrote:

"Hon. G.M. Sharp, representative from Cross county in the lower house of the general assembly, died a few days ago at his home on Crowley's Ridge. Mr. Sharp was one of the leading members of the house, and his familiar face will be sadly missed at the ensuing session. The governor has ordered a special election to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. Sharp."
(Daily Arkansas Gazette, 15 Aug. 1875, p.4, col. 2.)

"Mr. Taylor offered the following, which was adopted:

"WHEREAS, It has pleased God to take from our body, by the hand of death, our beloved fellow member from the county of Cross, the Hon. G.M. Sharp; and

"Whereas, It is right and proper that we should place upon record an appropriate memorial of one known to all of us for his purity of life, and his eminent usefulness, not only to his immediate constituents, whose interests he at all times guarded with unusual zeal and ability, but to the people of the entire state, in whose behalf, in the hour of their peril, he struggled against a common enemy; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the house of representatives, the senate concurring: That we bow in humble submission to this stroke of Providence, recognizing in it but another reminder of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death.

"Resolved, That we commemorate with pleasure the many excellences of character of our departed co-laborer, and while we feel a lively sorrow for his loss, we commend his sterling character to ourselves, and to the people of our state as a model worthy of emulation. He was truly a man among a thousand—pure in heart and exalted in his daily walk, and with a reputation above reproach.

"Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be forwarded by the clerk of the house to the family of the deceased, with whom we sympathize in their great affliction, and that the same be published with the proceedings of the general assembly as a lasting memorial of our departed friend.

Geo. P. Taylor, of St. Francis
Alexander Russell, of Saline"

While Grandison has always been affectionately known to us as "the Colonel," we have found no evidence of Civil War, or any other, military service. It may have been an honorary title. Although Grandison is shown to have owned slaves in both Virginia and Tennessee.

Mr. Fitzpatrick thought Grandison's son William H. Sharp was killed in the Civil War, however, we can find no record of his having served in the war, and he is last shown living in 1880 as a boarder with the Buffalow family in Lonoke County, AR, with his orphaned nephew, Thomas Jesse Sharp, Jr. Edward Sharp married Sarah Margaret V. BAKER on 27 Oct. 1857 in Gibson Co., TN. He survived the Civil War as a member of the Kentucky Calvary, but was taken by typhoid fever on 20 June 1865 at Nashville. He has among his descendants a considerable family in Texas. Thomas J. Sharp was a schoolteacher. He married first in 1862, Miss Joe LEATHERS, of Cross Co. and, after her death, her younger sister, Miss Aurelia (Dickie) LEATHERS. Thomas died shortly before his father in 1875 and left three children. Descendants we know of reside in Arkansas, Arizona, California and Florida. Sidney married on 17 Apr. 1880 Susan BLACKMAN. We know no more about his or his sister Mary's descendants, nor the fate of their half-brothers, Grandison M. Sharp, Jr. and G. Turner Sharp.

My Dear Mrs. Sharp—

Your letter received and it affords me pleasure to be able to answer, to a certain extent, your inquiries. I enclose some correspondence with one of your relatives [a Mr. Elam] which I think will be self-explanatory. [Letters missing.]

About two years ago, a notice appeared in the Memphis Commercial-Appeal —asking for information in regard to Grandison M. Sharp—and the correspondence referred to ensued.

Grandison M. Sharp moved from Pittsylvania Co., Va. to Gibson County, Tenn. and then, in August 1861 moved to what was then Poinsett Co., Ark., and settled 3 miles west of where Vandale is now located. The land he purchased adjoined my father's. Hence he was one of our nearest neighbors. I was then 12 years old. Col. Sharp was a man of more than ordinary intelligence and had considerable property. He brought with him a saw mill and flour mill, which he erected at his new home. This mill was of great value to that locality during the Civil War. It ground our wheat into flour, and people came to it from miles away. The house in which he lived has been torn down, but one of the old mill rocks is still lying by the roadside, and I have suggested to the D.A.R. that it should be brought to Wynne and placed in the courthouse yard as a memorial to the pioneers.

I saw William Sharp about whom you enquire once. He made a visit to his father in the early part of 1862. You will note that Mr. Elam says that he was killed near Memphis. He had not joined the army when I saw him. When Col. Sharp moved to Ark. a son named Thomas J. Sharp came with him. I have a faint recollection that he also had a son named Ed, but am not certain. Thomas J. Sharp taught our school in the fall of 1861, and I was one of his pupils. Thomas J. married Miss Joe Leathers in 1862. She lived only a short time and he then married her youngest sister, Miss [Aurelia] "Dick" Leathers. I think he moved to White Co. Ark. about 1871 [or] '72. Col. Sharp was married three times. I never knew his first wife. His second wife was a Widow McCutcheon. They had one son, Grandison M. Sharp, Jr. They separated and she returned to Gibson Co. Tenn. in 1863. His third wife was a Miss Pinkston [error: Mary C. Whitlock, m. 5 Feb. 1868] of Tipton Co. Tenn. They had no children [error: G. Turner Sharp, born 1869]. He was elected to the legislature from Cross County in 1874 and died the next year.

I have a sister, Mrs. E.H. Sanders, 1404 Hanger St., Little Rock, who knew Col. Sharp. From which one of his sons are you a descendant? Please return the correspondence as I like to keep these things for future reference.

Very truly,
T.O. Fitzpatrick

N.B. On re-reading Mr. Elam's letter, I find that it was Ed Sharp who was killed near Memphis [error: died in Nashville of typhoid fever 20 Jun. 1865].

Mrs. G.M. Sharp

Dear Mrs. Sharp—

I am enclosing a letter from Mr. Elam which I overlooked in my first letter to you. [Letter missing.] From your letter and his, I infer that Grandison M. Sharp had, by his first wife, three sons: William, Ed and Thomas J., and by his second wife one son, Grandison M. Sharp, Jr. When his second wife, who was a Mrs. McCutcheon, left him she took her son with her back to Gibson Co., Tenn. He was then about two years old. This was in 1863. About the year 1878, James M. Levesque, who was the administrator of Col. Sharp's estate, showed me a letter from this son in which he made inquiry about the property left by his father. He then lived in Gibson Co., Tenn. The records at Wynne, Cross Co., show that the property was sold to pay the debts of the estate. When you are through with the two letters, please return them.

Very truly,
T.O. Fitzpatrick

Last Will and Testament of JOHN ROSIER (1785-1867) Dated February 15, 1866, Proved 18 October 1867

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

In the name of God above I John Rosier of Baltimore County in the state of Maryland, being weak in body but of sound mind, disposing mind, memory, and understanding, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence, do therefore make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following; that is to say, first and joyfully recommit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the casket to be decently buried at the direction of my executor hereinafter named, and after my debts and funeral charges are paid, I devise and bequeath as follows. Item. I give and bequeath unto my three grandsons, John Slade, Joshua Slade, and Abraham Slade, sons of my deceased daughter Hannah, the sum of $600, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike, and to be paid to them within 2 years from the time of my decease, by my executor hereinafter named. Item. I give and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate both real and personal unto my son John Rosier. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my son John Rosier to be sole executor of this my last will and testament revoking and annulling all former wills by me heretofore made ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof, I have here to set my hand and affixed my

The Cynthiana Democrat, Thursday, March 8, 1917, Page 5, Col. 4 (Died):

SLADE--After years of patient suffering Aunt Polly Slade quietly passed to the Great Beyond on last Monday afternoon, March 5, at about 5:30 o'clock. She died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. John Blackburn, at Kelat. Mrs. Slade had been a patient sufferer, rarely complaining, enduring it all in silence. Indeed, she seemed to look to the interest and welfare of others instead of complaining of her own ills. She was a daughter of the late Rankin and Elizabeth Martin, and was born at Curry on May 16, 1840, and thus was nearing her seventy-seventh anniversary. Early in life, possibly some fifty years ago, she and Uncle Sam Slade were united in marriage. To this union thirteen children came to bless these good people. Two of the boys died when quite young, leaving nine girls and two boys, besides her husband to mourn her loss. She leaves three brothers, Messrs. Joe S. Martin and Peter Martin, of near Kelat, and Lark Martin, of Sedalia, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. S.W. Hill, of Kelat. The surviving children are: Mrs. Joe Beckett, Sunrise; Mrs. J.R. Brannock, Mrs. J.J. Sellars, Mrs. John Blackburn, Mrs. R.H. Lang, Mrs. B.W. Brannock, Mrs. A.B. Wheeler, all of Kelat; Mrs. Chas. A. Toadvine, Mrs. Arthur Rainey, of Miamisburg, O., and Messrs. John and D.F. Slade, of Cynthiana. When quite young Mrs. Slade became a member of the Curry M.E. church, South, and ever lived the faithful christian life. She was a woman widely known and greatly beloved. Her children are among the most prominent and most influential of the county, and her death brings sorrow to the hearts of all who had the privilege of enjoying her friendship. On account of the absence of some of the members of the family in Florida the funeral will not be held until tomorrow, Friday, morning at 11 o'clock. It will be at the Curry church, with services conducted by Rev. E.L. Griffy. The burial will be at Curry. The pall bearers selected are: Dr. G.A. Beckett, Louis Beckett, Levi Beckett, Walter Beckett, Jewel B. Slade, [and] J.W. Brannock, Jr.

Notes for WILLIAM DUGAN SLADE:

[5annwhalen.GED.FBC.FBK1.FBC.FBK.FTW]

According to his Civil War Pension papers he was born 31 March 1843 near Cynthiana, Harrison County, Kentucky. This record states the entry for his birth was in a Bible owned by his mother, Mary Slade, and read WD Slade was born March 31, 1843. His pension file lists him as 5'3" with dark complexion, black eyes and black hair. Another affidavit says he was married one and only one time on 24 August 1860. He married Armina Hardin and Armina's affidavit states they were married 26 August 1858, in Cynthiana, Kentucky by William Ratliff. This affidavit was witnessed by William H Slade of Urbana, Illinois, and Edgar E Morehead of Urbana, Illinois. Another affidavit by GMD Slade, age 76, and Larkin Hill, age 73, states WD Slade and Armina Hardin were married in the summer of 1860 in the claimant's home (Armina was the claimant), on Curry's Run, 8 miles from Cynthiana, Kentucky by Reverend Ratliff. At the time of the affidavit, 3 February, 1921 GMD Slade and LN Hill were living in Harrison County, Kentucky. William D Slade mustered in at Falmouth, Levas, Kentucky on July 25, 1863, into Company G, 40th Regiment, Kentucky Infantry, as a private. On the 24th of September, 1863, muster in Grayson County, Kentucky, he is shown as a Corporal in the Infantry, which is how he was listed for the remainder of his enlistment. On the 4th of February 1864 he was admitted to the hospital in Paris, Kentucky with rheumatism and returned to duty 10 February, 1864. Other hospital records show he was treated for rheumatism on April 2 and April 9 of 1864 and returned to duty 17 May 1864 at Cattlettsburg, Kentucky. His pension file stated that he had a permanent disability due to rheumatism resulting in heart disease from his Civil War Service. After leaving the service he lived in Brown County, Ohio for about one year, then Harrison County, Kentucky until 1876, Champaign County, Illinois from 1876 to 1905, and in Cumberland County, Illinois after 1905. In his 1912 pension declaration he was listed as living in Toldeo, Cumberland County, Illinois. He was a farmer and a Baptist preacher who had his own tabernacle tent and toured the country off season and held religious meetings. Lyle Slade state he had a brother named Jim who was hung by renegade scalwags after the Civil War.

Ezekiel B. Slade (CSA)
Enisted February 28, 1862 into Company C, 3rd Regiment, NC Calvary at Yanceyville, NC.
Rank of 2nd SGT.

1914) Newspaper Article on Captain Ezekiel B. Slade

Captain Slade is dead. Another true and brave soldier of Robert E. Lee has answered the final roll-call, met the last remedy, and has gone to join his comrades for the last sleep "under the shadows of the pines." There is inexpressable sadness in the thought that no more shall we look upon his kindly face and joy in his pleasant fellowship.

For more than three score years and ten he has stood among us like some giant oak of the forrest, sound and noble of heart, rugged in honesty, and casting pleasant Slade about. He had innumerable friends, and so true were his guiding oars that he seldom lost a friend.

As a soldier in the ranks he is said to have had few equals and no superiors. He was one of that gallant band under Capt. Rhinehart, whose many heroic deeds are the cherished history of Caswell County. In the line of obedience he stacked arms and surrendered, but Capt. Slade was a Confederate soldier who never acknowledged defeat. As a Mason, in which order he was a life-long member, he was loyal and true, and beyond doubt on the spotless, unseen pages of that ancient fraternity's history the angel of the Lord has written him down as a good man. and Mason and one who loved his fellow man.

It was probably in his home life that Capt. Slade's multitude of virtues were exemplified he was ever kind, gentle, thoughtful and self-sacrificing. He was blessed with a large family, and he was devotedly loved and loving.

Capt. Slade was a professing Christian, but had never united with any church. His loved ones find comfort that he realized his condition as Death came upon him, and he staked his trust in God implicitly.

He was our friend, and we loved and honored him. There be numbers of others who can say the same thing. The spirit has flown, and he shall mingle no more with us here. Let us hope that in that land where there is no sorrow nor parting we may clasp hands again. Until that time, good night, old soldier. May thy sleep be sweet and thy waking life everlasting.

Notes for CORA ANN HARRISON:
[Sannwhalen.GED.FBC.FBK1.FBC.FBK.FTW]

(Feb 1933)

Funeral of this prominent and beloved woman was held Friday from the home.

Mrs. Cora Ann Slade, age 86, died at her home here last Thursday evening. In the passing of Mrs. Slade Yanceyville and Caswell County lost one of its oldest and most beloved citizens.

Mrs. Slade was the daughter of of the late Samuel S. and Louisa McDaniel Harrison was born July 13th, 1846. She was the last of that immediate family of ten. She married May 24th 1870 to Captain Ezekiel Slade, being a bride at the time Kirk's army was sent to this county during the reconstruction period following the Civil War.

Mrs. Slade was the mother of 11 children. Six of whom survive her. Of the 11 children, all children surviving are : Mrs. Ella Vincent of Union SC, Mrs. George A. Anderson of Yanceyville, Mrs. Annie Richmond of Raleigh, Roy Harrison Slade of Blanch and Misses Addie and Hattie Slade of Yanceyville. The Grandchildren surviving are : Kenneth, John Quinton, Ruth Byrd, James Ezekiel and George A. Anderson Jr., Mrs W.B. Horton, Mrs M. McCrary, Mrs Cora Richmond and Ted Slade. The Great-Grandchildren surviving are : Nancey and Earl McCrary, Kenneth Jr., and Mary Anderson.

Mrs. Slade was educated at the Rhinehart Academy here and at the Greensboro Female College at Greensboro. She attended both of these schools before the Civil War.

Mrs. Slade was a wonderful conversationalist and had an alert and active mind up till the time of her death. She was always interested in those about her and liked to keep posted on all the news of her town, county and state. Although Mrs. Slade had been totally blind for more than 12 years and in ill health much of that time, she was never known to murmur a word of complaint, but was alway patient and tried never to putany one to extra trouble.

Mrs. Slade was a devoted Christian and an ardent church worker all of her active life. She became a church member at the old Harrison M.E. Church at tthe age of 11 and moved her memebership to Yanceyville in 1884. She was an active church member for more than 75 years.

The funeral service was held from the home last Friday afternoon at three o'clock. The rites being in charge of Rev. I.T. Poole, her Pastor, assisted by Rev. Roy F. Whitley, P.T. Worell and W.C. Jones. Internment was made in the Harrison Burial grounds at Purley, the old home of the Harrisons.

Charles Slade (Hezekiah, Samuel) born 3-22-1832, was the second son of Hezekiah and Helena (Taylor) Slade.

Charles saw action with the 7th Miss. Volunteers Marions Men in the Confederate States Army and also many hard ships came his way in life.

Charles was administrator of the estate of his father Hezekiah Slade.

He was a good craftsman and built many homes in this area.

On the 7-8-1889 he saw the historical fight at Richburg, Miss., where John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain fought seventy two rounds.

Charles made the remark when someone pushed him in the large crowd, that he paid to get in and see the fight.

He also recieved a land grant (ref.) Vol. 78, page 375 certificate No. 42267. This land and part of the estate of Hezekiah Slade is presently owned by Mr. J. D. Smalley of Purvis. He also has the land grant papers for this land. Charles recieved his grant in the year 1897 and Hezekiah, his father, recieved his grant in 1859.

Charles Slade married Susan Sophronia Baxter on the 12-30-1852. (Ref. Marriage Recors Marion County Miss.)

This is a brief sketch of Susan's ancestors, brothers and sisters. This information was supplied by the late Mr. Charlie Baxter and his brother, Mr. Dempsey Baxter of Baxterville, Miss.

John and Delilah Stanford had a daughter (Nancy E. Stanford, b. 8-20-1799). She married Thomas Baxter on the 1-22-1820.

Their children:

Susan S. Baxter Married Charles Slade on the 12-30-1852

Sarah Baxter Married Daniel Slade

NOTE: This letter was written by Sarah Ladner to her husband. Ref. copied from the original which is in the possession of Mrs. Helen Purvis, Of Purvis, Miss.

November 28, 1862

My Dear Husband,

I recieved your kind letter you sent after Rutillus got with you. I was very sorry to hear that you were sick but I can't expect to hear nothing else while you are in the army. I am well. Well as common, I can never say that I am ever right.

Well, Butler is fat and hearty. He grows fast. He can talk. Oh, he is so much company to me. When I ask him where you are he will point the way to go and say, "Pa gone way younder."

Oh, Plummer, I wish you could come home to see us, once more. You said you had a good notion to come any how if they would not let you off.

Oh, Plummer I would be glad to see you any how, see you any way you can come. But I can not persuade you to desert. You know best what to do. I know if I was in your place and they would not let me off I would want to desert, too. But I don't know what is best. It looks like they would let you come home now.

Oh, Plummer if you could be with me when I am confined, I would be better satisfied.

Oh, Plumer I wish I could go to see you. No chance for me to go now, but I hope you can come. Captain _____ is gone back. I think he will shortly let you off.

Steed Calvary got out of beef. He sent Elijah up after beef. Elijah came to see me and Jeremiah to see about selling your beef. Jeremiah concluded to take some of you beef. They got six head of yours. I reckon they will take more the next time. Elijah went to see if Shaw would take the money you owed him. He refused to take it. I would not care if he got one cent of it.

Pappy and Mama has been very sick. They are both mending the last I heard from them. All the rest of the family is well, I believe. I haven't received one letter from George, yet. Pappy got some letters from the boys. They were all well.

Oh, Plummer you don't know how dear you are to me. I could not help crying from your letter where you said you kissed mine and Butler's hair.

Oh, Plumer I wish it could have been me instead of my hair. Oh, Plumer you don't know how it hurts my feelings to think you want to see me so bad and can not come to see me.

Oh, Plummer ain't this too hard to think we love as well as we do and have to be parted.

Oh, Plummer I look at your likeness and shed tears. To think maybe I shall never see you again. I wish I had my likeness to send to you.

Plummer if you don't come home soon as I get able to go I will go to see you if you are alive.

Plummer I know you love me dearly, but try and not greive yourself any more than you can help. I hope and pray the Lord will be with us. I hope these few lines will find you well.

Oh, Plummer I can not write all I want to tell you but I reckon these lines will give you satisfaction, so I must quit. So goodbye Plummer, I remain you true loving wife. I will remember you.

Plummer three kisses for you,
Sarah Ladner

Samuel Slade (Hezekiah, Samuel) the son of Hezekiah and Helena (Taylor) Slade was born 6-19-1843 and grew up near Little Black Creek. He learned the trade of blacksmith and miller from his grandfather (Charles Taylor) and later on in life he owned and operated his own watermill and shop on Little Black Creek.

After the Civil War had started several of Samuel's brothers volunteered for service. Samuel, George, Benjamin and Calvin were to young for service, they stayed home and tended the farm and cared for their parents.

When Hezekiah, Their father, recieved word that Ebenezer had been killed, he sent Samuel with a mule to fetch Marilla and bring her back.

After his return, young Samuel felt the urge to join the army and fight for what he thought was right. The day he left for service was the day he was suppose to wed. He enlisted with the Marion's men 7th Miss., volunteers of the Confederate States Army and didn't marry the girl. He later mentions in a letter to his sister she was the only girl he cared for.

He was wounded in battle. He was shot between the eyes with a Yankie Minnie ball. Note scar on portrait. Charles was with Samuel when he was wounded, and made the remark to drag him over by a tree, he was too busy to stop. His hat is credited with asorbing most of the impact of the minnie ball. When they removed his hat the minnie ball fell out.

It just goes to show how stubborn he was, he refused to die and continued to fight in the war.

Samuel was a blacksmith and miller. He operated a blacksmith shop and water mill, that he built himself. Using the stones that were in his Grandfather Charles Taylor's mill. He was widely known in this area for the craftsman that he was. He ground meal for most of the families in this area. The mill closed for over fifty years no longer exists. The millstones are now at Leonard L. Slade's home place near Little Black Creek.

Mr. Irvin Miller present owner of the old Samuel Slade's place gave the stones to Leonard in 1973. They were dug out of the ground and removed to Leonard's place.

Samuel saw many hardships, had many disappointments in life but he always seemed to have the strength to carry on.

The records show that Samuel married three times. He married Arrietta Davis Moody (b. 7-8-1841) (d. 7-27-1897). Married first time on 12-12-1864. Married second time to Eurmia Wardene on (3-18-1901) married third time to Sarah Eliza Graham on 3-30-1906. Sarah was born 8-26-1842. Records indicate that Sarah Eliza Slade joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church on 11-12-1908. (Ref. of church minutes Pg. 121, of Mt. Zion Church is near Purvis. Miss.

There were no children by the two last marriages. Samuel and Arrietta Slade's childrn were:

Benjamin Slade was born on the 8-20-1851. He is the son of Hezekiah Slade and grandson of Samuel Slade. He was too young to go to war, and remained with family. About 1870 he married Aaran Anderson. His grandfather came from Dancing Rabbit Creek where they signed the Choctaw Treaty. Benjamin was noted for his musical talents. He would walk ten miles to play a violin. Many of the old timers around Purvis has danced to his music.

His place was near the old Slade Cemetery. He could repair clocks and anything of that nature--that is to say--only when he wanted to.

He liked most of all, to play tunes of Ireland. It seemed to be so easy for him.

Benjamin and Aaran's wedding pictures were obtained from their granddaughter (Mrs. Maude Fillingame) and restored.

Benjamin is buried at the Slade Cemetery. His wife Aaran is buried on the back road near Little Black Creek between two big cedar trees. Her marker has been removed to the Slade Cemetery--but her remains are still there.

Mr. Bud Cox has been a very fine citizen of Lamar County all of his life. His wife was a half sister to Mrs. Elisha Churchwell of the Dixie Community. She is the granddaughter of Benjamin Slade.

Mr. Cox married Lillie Jenkins on 5-7-1938. They bought the old place that once belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Ethan McDaniel Nichols's, and also was settled by Mr. Nichols's father.

Mr. Ethan Nichols was a surveyor for Lamar County, many years ago and after his death his wife lived on the old place. Their home was destroyed in 1908 by the tornado that struck Purvis. Later they built a house near the site where Mr. and Mrs. Bud Cox now lives.

Before Mrs. Nichols died, it was believed that she buried some money late one evening and sorted out her things to be given to her two adopted sons, Daniel and Calvin Nichols. With the things she gave them, each recieved three hundred silver dollars. She then went to Calvin's home. She was very sick and died two days later.

Mr. Cox likes to farm and says he has always loved this part of the country. One day in March of 1951, he was on his tractor getting ready to start a garden. After making a round he came to the end of the row and as he turned and out his plow in the ground he looked back and saw a metal can full of gold and silver turn out. Money was all over the ground. He started the tractor and didn't even take time to kill the motor. He said he got down on his knees and started filling his overall pockets. He then returned home and told his wife to get a bucket to put this money in. She quickly replied, "Are you crazy?" When he pulled out a hand full she believed what he said. They went back and found several more pieces. All together there was about 300 pieces of gold and silver.

As the writer of this book, I'm glad I had the privilege to know and talk with a man that found gold in them hills.

I, BUD COX HEREBY GIVE PERMISSION TO LEONARD L. SLADE TO USE THE ABOVE IN THE FAMILY HISTORY BOOK.

Ebenezer Slade (Hezekiah, Samuel) (b. 10-6-1833) was the third son of Hezekiah Slade. He married Nance Davis.

Their children:

Millard T. Died very young
Marrila b.1-27-1862 d. 6-25-1939

Ebenezer was with the Columbia Guard's 38th Miss. Regiment at Clarksdale, Miss. when he got killed in 1863. He is buried at Clarksdale, Miss.

Later Ebenezer's wife (Nancy) died leaving Marrila a very small girl. Their neighbors took her in and sent word back as to what had happened. Ebenezer's father sent Samuel (his younger brother) to Clarksdale with a mule to fetch young Marrila and bring her back. After their return Samuel joined the 7th Miss. Volunteers. When the war ended Samuel returned and took Marrila (his neice) to live with him. After she grew up she married Cull Z. Davis (b.11-30-1851, died 4-21-1933). She always spoke well of her Uncle Sam.

NOTE: Marrila was listed as a minor heir in her Grandfather Hezekiah Slade's estate. Recorded 3-29-1872, at the Columbia, Miss. courthouse.

Marrila and Cull owned a farm north of Purvis. They were very prosperous in cattle and sheep. There were no children. They are buried at Pine Grove Cemetery.
